

ISLAM: A MIRAGE OF PEACE

Praying about the growing influence of the spirit of Islam in our nation.

An IFA Interactive
Prayer Guide

INTERCESSORS
AMERICA

Use this Strategic Prayer Guide to gain wisdom in interceding about the increasing dominance of Islam in the laws and culture of our nation. The guiding Scripture for this prayer effort is Ephesians 6:12:

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Be a better informed and more strategic intercessor with this Special Report Prayer Guide. Use the prayer journal in each section to jot down any insights and words from the Lord during your prayer time. Ask God to reveal His heart on these issues to you.

The Islamification of America

SPECIAL REPORT PRAYER FOCUS:
Pray for understanding of Islam, for discernment about how it is affecting our nation, and for release of captives from the spirit of Islam.

Pray 1 Corinthians 14:15: So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my understanding . . .

With the staggering influx of Muslims immigrating into the U.S., the influence of Islamic culture has grown exponentially. School curriculum includes Islam, government agencies make accommodations for hijabs and prayer times and special exceptions for Islamic dietary laws, among many others. Why should this concern us? Immigrants have come to America from all over the world throughout our nation's history. Why a Special Report on the impact of Islam in our nation? Is there a spiritual component to this situation? Let's delve in for ten days—prayerfully—to learn about and pray about the people, organizations, spiritual principles, and effects of this phenomenon—the "Islamification of America."

In 10 years, from 2007 to 2017, the American Muslim population has grown by 47%, according to a study by Pew Research Center. This is an increase of over a million of countable Muslims in our nation (not reflecting those here overstaying a long-term VISA or arriving through illegal entry). It is important to understand how these exploding numbers are affecting our nation.

Ask the Lord for discernment regarding what you read about Islam in our nation. There are many voices out there—even some of them Christian—who tell us that America needs to accept the tenets, the practices, and the message of Islam. However, we believe we must reject Islam and love Muslims. How? Pray through this 12-day guide, asking God to reveal the truth about the false religion of Islam and how we as believers should approach it in prayer and action.

DAY ONE PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray that eyes would be opened about the truth of Islam. Pray for understanding of the doctrine, the creation of Islam, and the misconception that Christians and Muslims serve the same god.

Pray Ephesians 5:13.

The danger of “Chrislam”

In an effort to extend love to Muslims, some Christian leaders have gone too far to affirm Islamic beliefs. Validating the ideologies of Islam and marrying them with the Christian faith is not only hindering Muslims from finding the truth of Christ, but it is heresy and the Bible warns us of this.

We can, and must, as Christians, be loving toward others, but still reject their false religion.

Scripture tells us “Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved.” Acts 4:12.

Pray for believers to love the lost who may be Muslims and preach the truth boldly about Jesus Christ. Pray for wisdom to avoid compromise for the sake of unity.

What does Islam believe about...

Jesus

Muslims believe that Jesus did exist, although they do not ascribe any deity to him. Scripture tells us the truth. In John 10:30, Jesus states, “I and the Father are one.” Instead of God, Muslims consider Jesus to be just another prophet. Author Michael Brown states “the essential difference between Christianity and Islam is the difference between Jesus and Muhammad. Jesus was a spiritual leader who laid down His life to save the world. Muhammad was a spiritual leader, who became a political leader, then a violent military leader. Jesus accomplished His mission by dying on the cross. Muhammad accomplished his mission (at least in large part) by ruling by the sword.” Although Islam states that Jesus was a prophet, the teachings of Jesus and Muhammad are incongruent—meaning they are not compatible. While some themes may be commonly found in both Jesus and Muhammad’s teachings, such as helping the poor, most are at direct odds with one another. You cannot follow Jesus as God and embrace Muhammad too. Pray John 3:16 and acknowledge God’s provision in Jesus.

Abraham

Here is the source of the misconception that Islam and Christianity are really two religions following the same

god. Muslims believe that the promised son of Abraham in Genesis is actually Ishmael, not Isaac. They claim that Abraham traveled to Mecca with Ishmael and worshipped the one true God at the Kabba, a stone idol in Mecca. Muslims believe, in the spirit of the prophets of Abraham, Ishmael and Moses, Muhammad is a prophet and the greatest mouthpiece for god—the god they call Allah. Muhammad was a real person who lived from AD 570-632. He claimed to receive a revelation from the archangel Gabriel revealing that he was to be a prophet to the Arabic peoples promoting singular belief in Allah. This is not in the Bible. This claim that we worship the same god by a different name is false. Pray Luke 4:8 over our nation that we would serve only God.

The Quran

Muhammad claims that over the course of 22 years after receiving the purported visit from the angel, the writings of the Quran, one of the holy books of Islam, were revealed to him. The Quran rejects the deity of Christ, the death of Christ, and the resurrection of Christ—foundational facts of the Christian faith.

The Quran retells stories from the Bible, such as Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, skewing the facts and inserting Allah into the story with a different outcome. The Quran advocates violence and death to those who do not follow Allah—the “infidels.”

Here is one of many of the passages in the Quran that command violence in the name of Allah: “Fight in the way of Allah those who fight you... And kill them wherever you overtake them. Fight them until there is no [more] fitnah and [until] worship is [acknowledged to be] for Allah.” (2:190-191)

God’s Word, however, teaches kindness, love, and compassion, as well as the willingness of God to die for the redemption of man. The Quran teaches conquering those who do not follow Islam and that Muslims should die for the advancement of Islam. The Quran is a false teaching, twisting biblical history and advocating for hatred and violence. In your prayer time today, declare Acts 4:12, that there is no other name except Jesus by which to be saved.

DAY TWO PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray about the spirit behind Islam. Pray that the antichrist spirit would be thwarted. Pray for freedom from oppression, works, and violence. Ask God to give you insight on how to pray about this centuries-old false religion.

Pray 2 Corinthians 10:3-5.

What is the spirit behind Islam?

Antichrist Spirit

This spirit is defined by its denial of some very specific aspects of Jesus' nature and His relationship to God the Father. Islam clearly denies all three of the specific doctrines that the Apostle John identifies as defining the antichrist spirit. (1 John 4:2-3):

They deny the Sonship.

Although they acknowledge Jesus as part of the Islamic faith, He is no more than a prophet, and not the son of God.

They deny the trinity.

To a Muslim, the idea of the trinity is blasphemous—equivalent to worshipping three gods.

They deny the Cross.

There are varying beliefs among Islamic scholars as to what happened to Jesus, but they all agree that there was no death on the cross.

Pray for revelation of these three points to Muslims—that they would have dreams, visions, and encounters with Jesus, recognizing the TRUTH of WHO Christ is and WHAT He did to save all men!

The “Struggle”

One need not look far to find disturbing spiritual similarities with two ideologies. Adolf Hitler wrote a book at the beginning of his rise to power that fueled his message. It was entitled Mein Kampf, or My Struggle in English. The word struggle shares a similar meaning with the word jihād, which also can mean “a struggle within.” It cannot be a coincidence that two very anti-God, violent, and oppressive systematic ideologies are both built on the idea of struggle. Could it be the struggle of the antichrist spirit behind these leaders and their movements to gain power? To increase in strength and numbers? To wrestle away glory and honor from God? To distort and deceive?

Conquering. Oppression. Violence. Striving. Deceit. Pray that God would reveal the spirits and strongholds behind Islam. Pray for our mighty God to conquer antichrist spirits. Always go to the Word of God and pray the Scriptures, seeking wisdom in your prayer time. Another way to combat these is to act in the opposite spirit. Where there is fear, reassure. Where there is oppression, offer freedom. Where there is deceit, speak the truth.

Jihad's Nazi Connection

Adolf Hitler and the Muslim Brotherhood had a common enemy in the Jewish people. Forged in 1928, the Muslim Brotherhood sought a return to religious Islam. Its rise to power was fueled by the hatred of the Jews. Membership in the Muslim Brotherhood swelled in 1938 as Adolf Hitler's Nazi Germany was advancing. Both movements sought dominance based on a belief in their inherent superiority.

Hajj Amin al-Husseini, the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, transplanted Nazi genocide to the Middle East, creating an Islamic Fascist hybrid in the Muslim Brotherhood. He was close to Hitler and a paid Nazi agent. In fact, Hitler and the Grand Mufti used similar propaganda, plans, swastikas, and children's organizations. The personal memoirs of the Grand Mufti show that he had also planned a death camp, modeled on Auschwitz, to be constructed near Nablus for the systematic genocide of Palestine's Jews.

The Grand Mufti was the head of the Muslim Brotherhood and the foremost Muslim spiritual leader of his time.

Prayer Journal Notes

DAY THREE PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray for our leaders facing local, state, and national challenges in legislation, leadership, and lawsuits regarding Islam and its increasing impact on our nation. Ask God to give an extra measure of wisdom about immigration.

Pray Titus 1:15.

Islamic terms to know:

Sharia—The extensive legal code of Islam, dictating hierarchy of men over women, Muslim over non-Muslim, and includes dietary, relational, religious laws and harsh penalties.

Jihad— A holy war waged against non-Muslims on behalf of Islam, considered to be a religious duty; also, a personal struggle in devotion to Islam.

Taqiyya—Deception or lying for the advancement of Islam. This is a legitimate practice accepted and encouraged by Islam: “The complete and perfect war waged by a holy warrior is a war of deception .”

Hijra—A core part of jihad going back to Muhammad that involves Islamic conquest through migration.

Dhimmi—A non-Muslim who falls under Islamic rule and, as a price for maintaining his religion, accepts an inferior social standing and often pays a 'jizya' as well.

Jizya—The financial tribute doctrinally demanded and historically collected from conquered Infidels.

Hadith—Narrative record of the sayings and customs of Muhammad. These traditions carry the same weight as the Quran, but are followed more closely.

How is Islamic law creeping into America?

How is Islamic law creeping into America? In a word—gradually. “Gradualism is an intelligent form of jihad based on pragmatism, patience, long-term planning and self-evaluation,” reports Meira Svirsky of the Clarion Project. Gradualism is the key in infiltrating and transforming western societies into Islamic societies. Patience. Planning. Plotting.

In 2004, the FBI seized a Muslim Brotherhood strategy document that describes its “work in America as a kind of grand jihad in eliminating and destroying Western civilization within.” It is their systematic plan, and immigration as jihad is one means to accomplish their goal.

DOMINATION

DAY FOUR PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray to uphold our Constitution. Ask God to protect the founding principles of our nation and the constitutional freedoms and protections we enjoy. Pray our fundamental governance is not compromised to benefit Islamic ideologies.

Pray Psalm 19:7-9.

Is Sharia Law compatible with our Constitution?

Dr. Irwin Lutzer reported, in his book The Cross in the Shadow of the Crescent, about a Muslim demonstrator in Dearborn, Michigan, holding a sign stating: "We will use the freedoms of the Constitution to destroy the Constitution!" It seems wise for Americans to heed this warning.

Andrew McCarthy, Senior Fellow at the National Review Institute, writes "Sharia rejects freedom of speech as much as freedom of religion. It rejects the idea of equal rights between men and women as much as between Muslim and non-Muslim. It brooks no separation between spiritual life and civil society. It is a comprehensive framework for human life, dictating matters of government, economy, and combat, along with personal behavior such as contact between the sexes and personal hygiene. Sharia aims to rule both believers and non-believers, and it affirmatively sanctions jihad in order to do so." Sharia is not compatible with the Constitution because it not only rescinds rights guaranteed by our founding documents, but also imposes the laws of Sharia on those OUTSIDE of Islam. Allowing freedom to practice Sharia in pockets of American Islamic communities is inviting brutality and domination.

The First Amendment is key

One of the most obvious sticking points between Sharia and the Constitution is the First Amendment guarantee of free speech. Sharia law restricts speech and grants no freedoms. The Organization of Islamic Cooperation passed the "Cairo Declaration on Human Rights in Islam" which clearly defined Sharia practices as supreme—and for today. At the top of the list was censoring free speech regarding Islam and the death penalty for those leaving Islam. As a result, Sharia cannot coexist with American values, laws, and rights. Further, allowing some aspects of Sharia is dangerous—why would we want that contradictory lack of freedom to grow in our nation?

Sharia law does not allow the practice of other religions—no permission to propagate faith, nor to display symbols of other faiths. Under Sharia in America, there would be no crosses on churches, no freedom to share the Gospel, and no right to believe in anything but Islam.

Clear contradictions also exist in Sharia Law to the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, 13th, 14th, 16th, 18th, 19th, and 21st Amendments of our Constitution.

When Rep. Keith Ellison from Minnesota was sworn into office as the first Muslim-American in Congress, he chose to take his oath of office not on the Bible, which is traditionally used, but instead he put his hand on a Quran. It is ironic, disturbing, and dangerous, that the very book he swore his oath upon is contrary to the Constitution, which he swore to uphold.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower described a similar danger in his time. "The Bill of Rights contains no grant of privilege for a group of people to destroy the Bill of Rights. A group ... dedicated to the ultimate destruction of all civil liberties, cannot be allowed to claim civil liberties as its privileged sanctuary from which to carry on subversion of the government."

There are 90 Muslims currently running for office in the United States. This is one of the many reasons that God has been leading us to add action to prayer. Click HERE for our free prayer guide: Intercessory Activism.

Pray for justice for all in every state and community. Pray for wisdom for our leaders facing challenges to our freedoms, rights, and responsibilities as Americans.

Prayer Journal Notes

IMPACT OF ISLAM ON OUR LAWS AND LEGAL ACTION

Our laws are being challenged locally and nationally, and new laws are being proposed, usually by Islamic activists, with the intent of making subtle but critical changes in law enforcement, public safety, and workplace regulations and standards. These sought changes have the effect of promoting Islam, and possibly weakening our legal system for the future.

Here are some examples:

- Removing Muslim and Islamic descriptors from law enforcement perpetrator reports and public safety bulletins
- Designated places for Islamic prayer in public facilities and buildings
- Exceptions and accommodations for head coverings in airport and public facilities safety protocols
- Dietary changes to reflect preferences and observances of Muslims in jails, schools, and other public government buildings

PRAY for protection of law enforcement and public safety officials while allowing constitutional free exercise of religion accommodations. This is why our federal judges matter! Download our free Special Report prayer guide on the judiciary .

DAY FIVE PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray about the groups who are infiltrating our American system for the furtherance of Islam. Pray for wisdom, revelation of agendas, and for protection from their plans. We know that we do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against spiritual forces of darkness.

Pray Nehemiah 4:8.

The Sharia Plan for America

Prior to his arrest in August of 2013, Mohamed Badie, former Supreme Guide of the Muslim Brotherhood worldwide, outlined the six phases of the Brotherhood's plans to rule the world:

1. Sharia over the individual
2. Sharia over the family
3. Sharia over the society
4. Sharia over the government
5. Resurrection of the Caliphate
6. Mastership of the world

When western public schools disallow Christian prayers and Christmas programs, yet embrace, allow, and encourage Islamic prayer and traditions, they are already operating under the influence of Islamic Sharia law.

If the Muslim Brotherhood is telling us that this is their plan, shouldn't we believe them?

Pray for open eyes for law enforcement and leaders in dealing with these groups that do not want to assimilate into America, but to transform it and master it for Allah.

WHO ARE THE GROUPS THAT ARE RADICALIZED?

"They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it. But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat" (Nehemiah 4:8).

CAIR

The Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) describes itself as the Islamic equivalent to the NAACP, but former chief of the FBI's counterterrorism section, Oliver Revell, links CAIR to Islamic Association of Palestine, a front group for the designated, state-sponsored terror group HAMAS. Several key leaders, both in the past and recently, have given credence, funding, and allegiance to HAMAS. Still welcome on campuses and covered by media as a legitimate voice, CAIR has inserted itself into our national political and social system, representing not America, but HAMAS, Palestine and their extremist views. Nihad Awad, pictured above, is the President of CAIR. National Board Chair for CAIR is Roula Allouch.

Muslim Brotherhood and its satellites

Perhaps the most entrenched and insidiously connected Islamic terror group is the Muslim Brotherhood \(MB\). The Muslim Brotherhood is the father of groups such as Al Qaeda, ISIS, and others. The "jihadi" groups spawned from Muslim Brotherhood may be more well known, but behind them is the Muslim Brotherhood. With ties across the world, and cooperation among multiple regional Islam terror organizations, the Muslim Brotherhood is active in America as well. The Muslim Brotherhood's master plan for domination in North America is entitled The Project. (The English version begins halfway through the document.) According to the State Department, which provided this document in the Holy Land Foundation trial, it is a comprehensive plan, charting the groundwork of jihadists for establishing an Islamic government in North America. Their organizational chart shows many connected groups promoting Islamic influence in America.

What is the danger of Islamic influence in our nation? Founding Department of Homeland Security (DHS) member and author Philip Haney explains how the Quran and Islam is contrary to the gospel of Jesus Christ. Haney points out that the heart of the Islamic religion is the destruction of the covenant that God promises to believers. The Quran teaches there is no crucifixion of Christ, that Jesus is not the son of God, and that Muhammad is the "Messenger"—playing the role of the Holy Spirit in Islam. Their war with America is a war against the founding principles of America—Judeo-Christian values rooted in Scripture and faith in the God of the Bible. According to their plan and beliefs, Islamic domination is a right, Christians are but fleas, and lies and manipulation (Taqiyya) are an acceptable means to a holy end. Here you can find the experience of an Iranian Muslim who left Islam and shares the inside perspective.

Throughout the U.S. government, there are officials who accept the Muslim Brotherhood as a valid organization, sympathize with their beliefs, and oppose Israel at all costs because of the influence of the MB. Judicial Watch published a study that shows many documented instances where U.S. officials, under the direction of then-FBI Director Robert Mueller, purposely purged or altered information that labeled, tagged, or indicated Muslim involvement in terror activities.

Other people and groups with ties to Muslim Brotherhood that should be placed on the radar are: Omar Alomari (Muslim American Society) Mohamed Magid (Islamic Society of North America and ADAMS Center) Mohamed Elibiary (Holyland Foundation leader) Dahlia Mogahed (CAIR, ISNA, MAS & Muslim Public Affairs Council) Nadia Roumani (American Muslim Civic Leadership Institute) Arif Alikhan (MPAC & the Islamic Shura Council of Southern California ISCSA).

DAY SIX PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray about the effect of Islam in our schools. Pray that our students would be taught the truth about Islam. Pray for biblically sound, historically accurate curriculum and standards.

Pray Psalm 44:20-21.

Islam is impacting our schools.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

One of the most pervasive areas of Islamic influence in our nation is education. Many, many schools today provide standardized educational requirements that include teaching an expanded unit on Islam. In fact, in many states, more than a week, sometimes two or three, are spent on learning the tenets of Islam, with activities including memorizing Quran passages, being able to list the five pillars of Islam, and the components of each pillar.

“Access Islam,” a program developed by the Department of Education, began in 2005 and was greatly expanded under the Obama Administration. This expanded teaching module on Islam amounts to “teaching a Sunday School class on Islam right in our public schools.”

The lesson plans are written for grades 5 through 12. They include worksheets and videos to help students perform the 5 Pillars of Islam – prayer, fasting, alms giving, pilgrimage to Mecca, and the proclamation of Muslim faith.

From Creeping Sharia: This short video contains excerpted clips taken from the “Access Islam” program which teaches children not just about Muslim prayer but how to perform it in great detail.

Here are just a few examples of Islam in school:

Friendswood Junior High School in Houston had a mandatory Islamic Awareness activity that was led by CAIR members (an organization with known terror ties.) According to students, they were taught that “there is one God, his name is Allah” and that “Adam, Noah and Jesus are prophets.”

Amherst Middle School in New Hampshire transformed their town into a Saudi Arabian Bedouin tent community for a school project. Students were segregated by sex, where girls hosted hijab and veil stations. Boys, however, enjoyed food and Arabic dancing stations because, as the curriculum stated, “the traditions of Saudi Arabia at this time prevent women from participating in these public roles.” Another hands-on activity was the “Islamic religion station” which featured a prayer rug, verses from the Quran, prayer items and a compass pointed towards Mecca. This was all paid for by public education funds.

The Council on Islamic Education sought and secured a role in advising textbook publishers about educating American students about Islam. Our textbooks have been compromised with inaccuracies about Islam and its violent history. See sidebar.

Teachers and professors are being censored as well. One such example is Professor Susana Asberry of University of Washington. In teaching her class, a unit on slang, a discussion ensued on the term “bucket list.” One student asked Professor Asberry what was on her bucket list. Asberry replied that when she retired she wanted to share the Word of God with people. This simple answer to a student’s question resulted in multiple levels of university discipline proceedings against the professor because a Muslim student was offended. Asberry shares, “the administration forbade me any mentioning of “God” or referencing to my religious belief such as praying.” You can hear her interview firsthand here at this address: <http://bit.ly/2KaEOUj>.

We all know that schools across our nation have stopped singing Christmas carols in music class and assemblies for fear of offending other religions. Many of these same schools introduce Islamic songs in their education modules. Why have we traded our Judeo-Christian heritage for a new preference of Islam? Please pray for open eyes as to what this embrace of Islam in our schools means in our culture. Pray for the return to teaching based on virtues found in Judeo-Christian foundations.

Prayer Journal Notes

A Change of Course in Textbooks

In 1994, the Council on Islamic Education created a “guide” to help educate students about Islam. More accurately, it redefined Islamic terms to be more acceptable, reframed history to be more favorable to Islam, and glossed over the negative aspects of Islam, its violent history and oppressive culture. Beyond that, many textbooks have also expanded their footprint of covering Islam in the curriculum, making Islam a major unit in all kinds of textbooks, including history, art, and language arts.

Publishers using altered facts on Islam as provided by the Council on Islamic Education, including Houghton-Mifflin, Prentice Hall, Holt, Glencoe, and McDougal Little.

Here are just some examples of changes made:

Jihad redefined to remove violence.

Treatment of women and children made positive and palatable.

Western colonialism listed as just cause for wars involving Muslims through the ages.

Only peaceful Quran passages listed as representational.

DAY SEVEN PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray for these people who are promoting the Islamic agenda in our nation. Pray that their message, motive, agenda, and influence would be brought to light. Of course, pray that these people would come to know Christ as the true Savior.

Pray Psalm 64.

Promoting radical Islamic ideology...

Pray for each of these persons by name—for an encounter with Jesus and a repentant heart.

Mohamed Magid

Magid is President of the Islamic Society of North America and Executive Director of the All Dulles Area Muslim Society (ADAMS). As a prominent Imam with the largest mosque in America, located outside Washington DC., he wields a tremendous amount of influence in our nation among Muslims. His following has included several of the 9/11 hijackers, as well as other radicalized Muslims.

The ADAMS Center is a complex with classes, a school, Muslim community center and more just outside the Dulles airport area in Loudoun County, Virginia.

Linda Sarsour

Sarsour is co-founder MPower Change, one of the Islamic “Top 100” Power Players in Islamic America. She also serves as the Executive Director of the Arab American Association of New York, and has become an ubiquitous voice for Islamic causes, including Sharia. Her involvement in the Women’s March catapulted her into the national spotlight, where she gained momentum for her pro-Sharia causes by ironically piggybacking on the message of feminists. Sarsour also reportedly has family ties to Hamas, although she has been embraced by U.S. media and celebrities as a voice of reason on the Palestinian/Islamic topic. Fitting non-Muslim women in hijabs has become a display of empowerment at her speaking engagements.

Sheikh Mubarak Ali Gilani

Muslims of the Americas

(MOA), also known as Jamaat ul-Fuqra, is run from Pakistan by Sheikh Mubarak Ali Gilani. Their headquarters are in upstate New York in a commune known as Islamberg (a neighboring commune is known as Maryamville). Those two villages, as well as other Islamic enclaves in the U.S., are fortified with radical teachings, arms, and plenty of soldiers of Islam. This group was behind the 1994 World Trade Center bombing and still operates militant training camps in the U.S. Their Brooklyn mosque also promotes radical teachings and leaders. Multiple human rights abuses, such as beatings, chained women and children, and other atrocities at these villages have been reported. Apparently, law enforcement avoids these areas.

Prayer Journal Notes

DAY EIGHT PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray for the people working to expose the Islamic movement in our nation. Pray for strength, protection, continued insight, and a platform to tell the truth about Islam.

Pray Psalm 60:4-5.

ISLAM EXPOSED

Exposing radical Islamic ideology...

Brigitte Gabriel

A Christian, born in war-torn Lebanon, Gabriel has seen firsthand what Islamic terror can do to a nation and to religious freedom.

Her organization, ACT for America, highlights the dangers of Islam in our nation and the infiltration of Islamic-apologists in our country and government.

In her first book, Because They Hate, she warns, “the radical Islamic movement has availed itself of the PC mentality to convince good-hearted people around the world that the Jews, Israel, and the ‘fascist government of the United States of America’ are responsible for the ills of the Muslim people, and that their daily suffering is because of them. The PC crowds label anyone who disagrees with this notion a bigot.”

Her honest, direct, and first-hand account of Islamic terrorism has earned her respect from some, rebuke and censorship from others.

Pamela Geller

Flamboyant and loud, Geller relentlessly exposes planned and under-reported incidents of Islamic violence and threats across the world.

A fatwah has been issued against her for her work.

Nonie Darwish

As director of Former Muslims United,

Darwish connects others who have extricated themselves from Islam and now speak out to tell the truth about Islam. Growing up in Egypt, she converted to Christianity shortly after moving to America with her husband. Darwish has written several books about her inside view of Islam.

Kamal Saleem

Raised in the heart of the Middle East, trained as a terrorist in the PLO, Saleem was sent to his assignment in the United States as a young man.

What he did not know is that an automobile accident would give him an encounter with a Christian man at the scene, a Christian doctor, and a Christian surgeon, all of whom shared Christ with him. As a result, Saleem renounced Islam for Jesus. Now, his mission is to educate and warn others on what he calls “the most clear and present danger to both Christians and Jews in the world as we know it today –radical Islam.” He has authored several books, speaks on Islam, and is on the board of Former Muslims United.

Philip Haney

A founding member of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Haney brought his expertise in Arabic language and culture to the Customs and Border Patrol department of DHS, and their Advanced Targeting Team (ATT). The ATT connected the dots of Islamic terror groups and individuals, tracking them for advanced action, resulting in the protection of our nation.

Haney was a whistleblower to the mandated, systematic erasing of terror ties on the records of these suspects and has authored a book on his experience, See Something. Say Nothing. Haney is a devout Christian.

Prayer Journal Notes

DAY NINE PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray about ecumenical movements that sacrifice truth for the illusion of unity. Pray for discernment, wisdom, and revelation for churches, pastors, and Christians. Pray for open eyes concerning groups that appear to be seeking goodwill, but are actually opposed to the true, biblical Jesus.

Pray Psalm 12.

The thread that leads back to Islamic supremacy in the Quran:

The Washington Declaration 2018

A COMMON WORD

Not all unity is good.

The Washington Declaration

Penned in February 2018, The Washington Declaration is a profession of unity signed by over 400 members of Islamic, Christian, and Jewish faiths, embracing the same root, what they call "Abrahamic faiths." The historical thread of this declaration traces back to the Medina Charter of the 7th Century. The Washington Declaration is the outcome of the work of the Islamic Alliance of Virtue for the Common Good, which was conceived in as an Islamic movement. What is The Alliance of Virtue?

The Alliance of Virtue for the Common Good

Originally founded as an Islamic movement, The Alliance of Virtue for the Common Good was repackaged in 2018 as a "global" version of this Islamic alliance. The Alliance of Virtue for the Common Good became a global initiative and was unveiled the day before the 2018 National Prayer Breakfast, along with The Washington Declaration. This new global body is tasked with implementing The Washington Declaration. The declaration calls for a global multi-religious body consisting of prominent religious figures to "support mediation and reconciliation." This "partnership" of understanding and respect may appear to be a good thing. Looking deeper, and consulting experts on Islam, this is feared to be a Trojan horse or even a potential pathway to one-world religion. A key factor in questioning the sincerity and motive is the person behind the Islamic effort, Sheikh Abdullah Bin Bayyah, who approved a fatwah to kill Americans in Iraq and the destruction of Israel. The Alliance of Virtue was birthed out of The Marrakesh Declaration. What is in the Marrakesh Declaration?

The Marrakesh Declaration

In January 2016, The Marrakesh Declaration was unveiled as a recognition of the 1,400th anniversary of the Charter of Medina and the contract between Allah and Muhammad. Among other things it affirmed actions and attitudes befitting the Islamic faith, again, stating that "AFFIRM HEREBY that such cooperation must be based on a "Common Word," requiring that such cooperation must go beyond mutual tolerance and respect, to providing full protection for the rights and liberties to all religious groups in a civilized manner that eschews coercion, bias, and arrogance. " It is all based on the concept of "A Common Word." What is A Common Word?

"A Common Word"

One expert in the area of Islamic activity, Philip Haney, warns that the origin of the Alliance of Virtue can be traced back to "A Common Word," a 2009 open letter from the Islamic community to the Pope and other Christian leaders. According to those familiar with Quranic verses and the Islamic culture and language, there is more than meets the eye to this seemingly "olive branch" open letter. "In full context [of the open letter, A Common Word], it is clear that this section of the Quran, including 3:64, is a condemnation of Christianity and Judaism and a call for conversion. Why would this verse be included in a call for peace and understanding between Islam and Christianity? The authors and signatories of this letter are among the most learned scholars of Islam in the world. They know the context of 3:64 and its true message, which is exactly why they included it. This letter is not a call for peace. It is a call for conversion."

Pray for discernment and wisdom to understand what is going on behind the headlines.

DAY TEN PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray about the increasing number of observant Muslims becoming involved in all levels of government in the U.S. Pray that motives, allegiances, and true intentions would be revealed. Pray that all who favor Sharia would be defeated.

Pray Zechariah 10:2.

Islamic leadership on the ballots.

In the 2018 Midterm elections, 90 Muslims are on the ballots—nearly all as Democrats, running for public office across the U.S. The most prominent race is for the Governor of Michigan. Abdul Al Sayed, a Detroit area doctor with Muslim Brotherhood sympathies is a very likely candidate to win the Governorship. Michigan is home to Dearborn and Hamtramck, two Muslim-majority towns that are growing in both influence and population. Below left is the ad AGAINST Al Sayed.

Nadeem Mazen

Jetpac is the new Muslim political action committee that has been launched to propel more Muslims into public office in America. Nadeem Mazen founded Jetpac in Cambridge Massachusetts after becoming the first Muslim on the city council. Organizations like Jetpac are in part responsible for the over 90 Muslims on ballots across the nation in 2018. “We will take our place at the table across all levels of government.” says founder Mazen.

“Jetpac is the start of a revolution.”

Meet Abdul Al Sayed

He has been hand-picked by the Left to be their next “champion” of “Hope and Change

Al Jazeera, which is widely read by Michigan’s large Muslim population is doing its best to help George make him “YOUR” president in 2020!

He is 32 years old, born in the USA, extremely well educated Muslim Doctor in Detroit Michigan. (education funded by Soros)
He is handsome, articulate, charismatic and smart.
He is sympathetic of the Muslim Brotherhood, and is running for Governor of Michigan.

James Zogby, longtime Democratic strategist and pollster, declares, “ They are ready! The ‘Muslim blue wave’ is going to the voting booth for Muslim candidates.” With a larger number of Muslim-American candidates than ever in our history, Muslims are deliberately recruiting, raising funds, and soliciting voters for the 90

Muslim candidates on U.S. ballots—many of them mayor and city council seats. Fayaz Nawabi (pictured above), a 31-year-old candidate for San Diego City Council, favors typical democratic policies. That makes him part of the blue wave of new liberal candidates. Pray that voters do their homework to know what each candidate stands for— Download our special report prayer guide on the midterm elections.

DAY ELEVEN PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray Colossians 1:19-20.

—Galatians 3:28

A Biblical rivalry exists today.

Although Abraham had been promised that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars of heaven (Gen. 15:5), Sarah was not able to bear him a child. Sarah, not trusting God, took matters into her own hands and came up with the idea of making her maid, an Egyptian named Hagar, a surrogate for her husband. Unfortunately Abraham heeded his wife's advice. Outside of God's provision and plan, Hagar conceived (Gen. 16:1-2). Author Herbert Lockyer observes, "Little did Sarah know, when she persuaded Abraham to take Hagar, that she was originating a rivalry which has seen the keenest strife through the ages, and which oceans of blood have not stopped." Once Hagar had conceived, she was proud to be pregnant while Sarah was barren. Sarah, with Abraham's approval, "dealt harshly" with Hagar, forcing her to flee into the wilderness. But God assured her that He would also multiply her descendants so that they could not be counted (Gen. 16:3-10). She was instructed to call her son Ishmael ("whom God hears"). This is the prophecy regarding Ishmael:

"He shall be a wild man;

His hand shall be against every man,

And every man's hand against him,

And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren" (Gen. 16:12).

Pastor James L. Garlow observes, "The offspring of Abraham is the focal point of the current conflict. The ongoing struggle in the Middle East is a direct result of the animosity between the descendants of Ishmael and Isaac. While there is no record of Ishmael and Isaac ever fighting each other, Genesis does record God's prophecy regarding Ishmael; He will be against everyone, and everyone will be against him (Gen. 16:12 TEV). Today's struggle is between those who call themselves the descendants of Ishmael and those who call themselves descendants of Isaac. The intense struggle in Israel and the surrounding Arab nations can only be understood historically as a struggle between the descendants of two brothers who lived four thousand years ago: Ishmael (modern-day Arabs) and Isaac (the Jews)."

Pray for Muslims, those descendants of Ishmael—who were a result of Sarah not trusting in God's promises. Pray that today's Muslims, deceived by the spirit of Islam, would be grafted back into the family line, through saving faith in Christ.

DAY TWELVE PRAYER FOCUS:

Pray for those ex-Muslims who share their story of coming to Christ. Lift up in prayer those who have, at great personal cost, denounced Islam and embraced Jesus. Pray for strength, influence, and protection as they share their testimonies of transformation.

Pray Hebrews 13:6.

Born again as a believer in Christ.

Rifqa Bary

In a high profile case, this young lady risked everything to renounce Islam and follow Christ at age 16. Through a friend at school, who introduced her to Jesus, Bary embraced Christ and couldn't get enough of reading her Bible, which she kept hidden in her room. Her father confronted her about the change in her, and gave her an ultimatum to renounce Christ or be dealt with in an honor killing, in compliance with the mosque. Her amazing story is representative of what an American Muslim who embraces Christianity may endure. Still under threat of her brother and father's requirement to kill Bary to maintain honor in her family, she remains hidden and places her trust in Christ for her safety and future. She has written a book about her journey to know Christ. Pray for her safety and continued platform to share her faith.

Abu Atallah

Atallah grew up in Egypt in a Muslim home. His amazing transformation from Muslim to Christian comes with the usual deep chasm between his former life and his new life in Christ. He tells his story in his book, From Cairo to Christ: "His conversion was costly. He lost family, friends, career, and home. He slept on floors and was effectively kicked out of college. His life was at risk. In fact, he chose the English name Stephen due to his belief that he too would soon be martyred." Atallah tells his story of the journey that he took, and one that more and more Muslims are taking today, to embrace Christ. Today he is the founder and CEO of European Training Centre, ministering to Muslims as a missionary. Pray for Atallah to lead many Muslims to Christ.

Hazem Farraj

Born in New York to a Muslim family, Farraj's father moved them to the Palestinian area of Israel when Farraj was 12. "My conversion took a whole 3 long miserable horrifying years of navigating myself, my culture, the mosque sermons, my fathers' ideology... it was a nightmare." At age 17 he hopped a Greyhound and left his family and Islam behind. "Literally, night sweats and nightmares, whispers of fear, hiding in secrecy looking over my shoulder, as I remember digging into the Quran and the Sunna he shares." When he found himself face to face with Christ in his search for true peace, he was labeled an apostate by his family. Today he shares his story and proudly uses the label Christian Ex-Muslim to show that Muslims can break free from Islam. Pray for continued growth in Christ as he shares.

Pray for those many others in the Muslim world who have forsaken families, traditions, safety and familiarity for the cross of Christ. Pray 1 John 1:2 that their testimony of what God has done in their life will resonate with the God-shaped vacuum in each Muslim with whom they share.
